My Defense. EDITOR SENTINEL: -Permit me make a friendly correction as regards a notice which appeared in your paper of a late issue signed by the reverend gentle-men, J. H. Tobias and A. E. Flickinger, stating therein that I was not a Presid ing Elder or member of the Evangelical Association and that Rev. James Runcie was not a minister or member of the same; also stating that I had a few years ago withdrawn from said Evangelical Association in an unchristian manner and live in opposition thereto, &c. I want to say that said statement is wholly and in every part untrue and a fabrication of falsehood, intended to burt the good name and influence of Rev. Runcie as well as myself. Rev. J. M. Runcie was duly appointed by the Stanoning committee of the Platte river conference of the Ev. Association to Oregon assion at its last session, held March 3th, 1894, at Dawson, Richardson county, Neb. I was duly elected to the office of presiding elder of said conference, March, 1892, at its session in Glenville, Neb., for a term of four years and sta-tioned on Blue Springs district and am till serving this district. Mound City is in a sad plight. It seems that the supply of Democrats who can read and write was exhausted before we got a new post-master, Quile a number are now learning the art, but the administration looks with suspicion on that kind of Democrats, so it seems that the "assess" are not all turned out yet, neither are they likely to go soon.

SAMUEL O'FALION, GEO. ANDERSON, J. A. KREEK.

Exercises were conducted by the president. Mary Loames and Cayten Appleman. The interary program was opened by song, followed by prayer and song, and the address on the power and importance of the societies to the conrelies by Rev. Efficer, who well knows how to entertain the people. The exercises consisted largely of select readings, original pages, recitations, vacal quarteties, instrumental soles and oneffee of a most cutertaining kind. Such socials have a powerful influence in stimulating the minds of the young to a tiste of good literature.

A pleasant surprise is said to be of increased value, and we can realize the immediate value of the excellent feast prepared for the Harmony school the last day. The effects and influence of such gatherings and associations of the patrons with the school can curvely be conceived. They show a deep sympathe with our common school system, which is of to little importance in developing the chind's mend. Those ladies who well know how to prepare such diamers will make the worthy successor proud of his position. After the rhebarical exercises were over. Mr. Batts showed in a brief speech, the relation of teacher and parent and the true steps necessary to arouse enthusiasm in the educational advancement of the neighborhood.
